Letter from Rev. Rice

A. H. CLEMENT, Editor:

I have thought a great deal about the friends I left behind since I have been here and I have thought perhaps they would like to hear from me. As I can not write a personal letter to them all I have decided that, with the permission of the editor, I would let them hear from me through the Times-Virginian. We have been kindly received and well cared for since we have been here. The charge did not own a parsonage until this year, and as the former pastor was single, we are the first preacher's family to live in it. The ladies worked hard to have it in readiness for us, and the pantry has been so well supplied that it has been necessary to buy very few provisions. In addition to what had already been sent in, a very liberal pounding was given us this week.

I shall not forget the four pleasant years I spent on the Appomattox circuit, and how nice the people were to me. Their kind expression of appreciation did much to strengthen my heart for the work. When I went to the work there were few who knew how feeble I had been, that thought I could hold out twelve months. Some times it was with difficulty that I filled my appointment but however poorly I felt that I had done, someone seemed to get something out of it, and whatever I did met with their approval. Their words of commendation have followed me over here. I prize all this more highly than anything else they could have done for me. I trust that they may show my successor the same appreciation. I also greatly appreciate the courtesy shown me by the editor of the Times Virginian.

Gladys, Va. A. S. J. RICE.

In Memoriam

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear husband and father, Thomas H. Dolan, who left us one year ago today, December 1, 1919.

Our loved one is sleeping
So free from all pain,
Oh wake him not sweet spirit
To suffer again.

He slumbers so soundly,
Oh let him sleep on;
His sickness is ended
And his troubles are gone.

Oh think how he suffered
And moaned with pain
In the long night hours
We soothed him in vain.

Till God In His mercy
Sent down from above
An Angel that whispered
A message of love.

Yet again we hope to meet thee,
Dear one,
When the days of life are fled
And in heaven with songs to greet thee
Where no farewell tears are shed.

MRS. N. P. DOLAN AND CHILDREN

M. G. Willis, Jr., Dead

Death came to M G Willis, Jr., Sunday, Dec. 12, at 5:45 o'clock a. m. at the Mary Washington Hospital, following an illness of two weeks. News of his death, while not entirely unexpected, was a shock to the entire community, and cast a wave of sadness through the hearts of its citizens. Mr. Willis never rallied from an operation for appendicitis performed on Dec. 1. All that modern medical science and skilled physicians and specialists could do was done for the sick man, including the transfusion of new blood from the veins of a cousin, but to no avail

A future of great promise and usefulness lay before Mr. Willis, who was 38 years and 6 months of age. During his career, brought to an untimely end, he had accomplished much good for the community through his unselfish and untiring work for civic and church betterment. Mr. Willis was an active member of a large number of city organizations of every character. He was serving a second term in the City Council, was a member of Fredericksburg Lodge of Elks, a director of the Farmers and Merchants State Bank, an ex-member of the City School Board, a member of the Executive Committee of the local Community Service, a member of the Eastern Star, and Quartermaster of the Virginia Division of the Sons of Confederate Veterans. He was a life long member of the Baptist church and gave unlimited service to his church in the recent campaign for 75 million dollars by the Southern Baptists, during which he canvassed a large part of the State with much success. He was also a member of the Baptist State Mission Board. Mr. Willis was associated with his father in the fertilizer and seed business

Seldom has such a wide concern and interest been manifested in the condition of a citizen as during the illness of Mr. Willis. Not only from the community but from a great distance came telegrams and telephone messages of sympathy and encouragement

In the death of Mr. Willis, Fredericksburg has lost a most public-spirited and valuable citizen. The sympathy and condolence of the whole community goes out to the bereaved family of the deceased.

Members of his immediate family surviving Mr. Willis are his wife, who was formerly Miss Carrie Hunter, of Appomattox, Va.; a young son and daughter, Marion Gordon Willis 3rd, and Caroline Willis; his father, ex-Mayor M G Willis, Sr., and one sister, Mrs. J Rufus Hunter, of Raleigh, N. C. A large number of other relatives, prominent in this city and Culpeper and Orange counties, also survive

Rev. Emerson L Swift, pastor of the Baptist church, of which Mr. Willis was a member, omitted his sermon at the Sunday morning service and instead delivered a beautiful and striking eulogy on the life and death of Mr. Willis, who was called to a greater reward by his All-wise Maker. Mr. Swift's emotional characterization and splendid tribute to the departed member brought tears to even the stern business men in the congregation. Prayers and condolences were also expressed at other churches in the city. Following the service, a delegation of the deacons of the Baptist church and the Baraca Class called at the residence of Mr. Willis, Sr., and comforted him in his hour of distress

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Swift assisted by Rev. Dr. B Aubrey Williams, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church of Richmond, and former pastor of the local church. The large church was filled to overflowing by friends who came to pay their last respects to their esteemed friend.

The public schools closed at 2 p. m. to enable the scholars to attend the funeral of Mr. Willis, who was a member of the School Committee of the City Council and an ex member of the City School Board. The Council Chamber will be draped in mourning for thirty days as a mark of respect to Councilman Willis

The Masons, Elks, Eastern Star, City Council and Directors of Chamber of Commerce attended the services in bodies and the Masonic funeral rights were observed at the grave in the family lot at the City Cemetery, where interment was made

The floral offerings were innumerable and their beauty and freshness could not be surpassed.—Fredericksburg Star

Navy stationed at Norfolk; Edward Abbitt of China, and Mrs Rose of Henderson, N C, where he recently went from Norfolk hospital in an effort to recuperate his health He had been a sufferer for the past several months with heart trouble The body was met by his former schoolmates of the Appomattox high school.

Good Move

In accordance with the American Legion's campaign for justice to disabled veterans of the World War, government officials, the Legion's National Commander and its committee on Hospitalization and Vocational Training, at a recent meeting in Washington, drafted a bill combining the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, the public Health Service and the Rehabilitation Division of the Federal Board for Vocational Education in a single bureau of one department of the government under a single head. The measure, in general form, will be submitted to the present session of congress

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
